

Vocation Reflections July 2021

Blessed Theresa of Jesus Gerhardinger:

O God, I desire to serve you with constant joy and total trust because you are my joy and help.
O God, I desire to love you earnestly and to make this love visible by fulfilling the responsibilities of my state of life.

Ministry and Discernment

Part of discerning a call to consecrated life includes an exploration of service as a way of life.
Consider these quotes:

“So it is that in accordance with the Divine Plan a wonderful variety of religious communities has grown up which has made it easier for the church...to be equipped for every good work and ready for the work of the ministry – the building up of the Body of Christ.”¹

“May the world of our time...be enabled to receive the Good News not from evangelizers who are dejected and discouraged...but from ministers of the gospel whose lives glow with fervor, who have first received the joy of Christ.”²

Scripture, too, offers insight ...

Matthew 15:32-39
Matthew 20:1-16

Mark 6:7-13
Mark 16:1-8
Luke 5:1-11

Luke 7:18-23
Luke 10:25-37
John 20:11-18

For Reflection:

- What does it mean for you to minister to/with someone?
- How do you connect service and ministry with your faith?
- How does a job (whatever job you have) become a way to minister to others?

How does reflecting on ministry contribute to your journey of discernment?

Prayer: Jesus, we turn to you, our model and mentor of giving and receiving. We recall how you poured yourself out in service to those who crowded around you. We bear in mind, too, how you withdrew to the mountainsides to pray and restore what was depleted in your body and spirit. Grant us, Giver of Gifts, the wisdom, inspiration, and discipline to cultivate a healthy balance between generous service to others and compassionate care of ourselves. Amen.³

Vocation Reflections is a monthly newsletter for those interested in learning more about discernment, prayer, and other topics related to the consecrated/vowed life. For questions, comments and subscription information, please contact sisters@ssnd.org.

Looking Ahead:

July 27: We will collectively, (but individually), pray as one. Email us at sisters@ssnd.org to receive your copy of the prayer, then set aside time to share in this time of lifting hearts and minds to God.
