

PART 1

We Can Do Anything

We can heal broken hearts, & wipe away your every tear.
We can end world conflicts, & create a planet of lasting peace.
We can inspire humanity to be better, not perfect.
We can speak the truth, & erase the twisted lies of misinformation.
We can give birth to ideas that change history.
We can embrace the poor, welcoming them into our hearts.
We can set your soul on fire with determination & unflinching commitment to good.
We can make you laugh & swim in utter joy.
We can end war & all forms of violence.
We can sow & cultivate the seeds of democracy & freedom.
We can give dignity & respect to all of humankind.
We can welcome diversity of beliefs, cultures, opinions, & respectful dialogue.
We can welcome everyone with open arms, not fences of intolerance.
We can deepen your faith, mirroring the Creator of All.
We can give you visions of the future without limitations.
We can protect life in all of its sacredness.
We can give comfort & courage to those who suffer.
We can give hope to those lost in worry & depression.
We can support.
We can create. We can advise.
We can forgive the deepest of hurts.
We can pray.
We can love.

We are more powerful than you can ever imagine.
We can do anything, for we are words,
So choose your words wisely!

PART 2

We Can Do Anything

We can destroy reputations with no sense of shame or conscience.
We can mock any faith or lack of it.
We can bury the truth, & bury it so deep,
that it's lost forever to history & time.
We can inspire violence, as we walk hand in hand with its hidden dangers.
We can demean the uneducated, the elderly, the mentally ill, & the disabled.
We can obliterate a country with a signature, pressing a button of utter destruction.
We can prioritize profit over the conservation of our planet's resources.
We can sow & cultivate the seeds of hate, racism, and divisiveness.
We can worship the gods of discrimination, money, narcissism, & unlimited power.
We can put a person in prison forever, guilty or not, a lost forgotten soul.
We can take away every basic freedom of humanity.
We can erase your job security.
We can welcome everyone deemed "unacceptable" with diatribes of lies & intolerance.
We can discriminate & persecute anyone, anywhere, anytime.
We can trample over those with differing opinions.
We can crush your hopes, your dreams & aspirations into absolute dust.
We can ridicule until your self-worth and dignity are washed away
into a bottomless pit of self-doubt.
We can steal your bank account, erasing a lifetime of savings.
We can weaponize politics & decision-making.

We are more powerful than you can ever imagine.
We can do anything, for we are words,
So choose your words wisely!
