Magnifica Humanitas: Session 2

Outline: the foundations of Social Doctrine (#48-58); the principles of Social Doctrine (#59-81); Integral Human Development (#82-85); an examen for the Church (#86-89)

General Reflection Questions
Throughout this reading and discussion, you are invited to consider your responsibility and role in the reconstruction of a civilization of love.

- An insight, perspective, or question I have from reading this chapter of Magnifica Humanitas is:

- A quote/excerpt/section that caused me to ponder deeply, feel discomfort, or experience hope is:

Chapter 2: #48-89

- What principle(s) of Catholic Social Doctrine am I familiar with, and which principle seems particularly challenging? Where do I witness these principles lived out?

- How do I use technology (apps, artificial intelligence tools, social media) daily? When does my use of technology become a form of isolation, and when does it improve relationships and connection?

- When I look at today's world, including the rapid growth of AI and technology, do I think decisions are being guided more by private gain or by the common good?